

Director, Acquisition Career Management
(DACM)
Training Seminar Announcement

Course Title:	DAWIA Guidance for NAVSUP Acquisition Professionals
Program Administrator:	Director, Acquisition Career Management, Arlington, VA
Course Dates:	Tuesday, December 4 th , 2001 (1 st offering) Wednesday, December 5 th , 2001 (2 nd offering) Note: Each session is one day in length
Course Hours:	0830 - 1230: Acquisition Workforce Training 1330 - 1630: On-line DAWIA training course registration and acquisition workforce data review/update
Location:	Naval Inventory Control Point – Philadelphia 700 Robbins Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19111-5098 Seminar: NSA Auditorium, Building #4A. Registration-Now/data review and update: Training Room “P”, Bldg. #2C
Cost:	Tuition: None Travel: Travel costs are the responsibility of the participant’s employing organization
Course Description:	The training portion of the seminar (approx 4 hours) will focus on Acquisition Workforce Program policies and procedures including the identification of acquisition positions, certification, Acquisition Professional Community membership, continuous learning, tuition assistance, and the new education requirements for contracting personnel. Upon completion of the training, acquisition workforce members will have an opportunity to register “on-line” for acquisition training courses and review/update acquisition workforce data in their official personnel records.
Target Audience:	Civilian and Military members of the Acquisition Workforce employed within the Mechanicsburg and Philadelphia PA areas, their supervisors, and HRO/HRSC support personnel
Registration:	Register on-line at the following web site: www.register-now.cms.navy.mil (click on Register-Now for Continuous Learning)
Point of Contact:	For further information, contact: Steve Koszelak at 215-408-5247 (DSN: 243-5247), Email: steve_koszelak@ne.hroc.navy.mil
Security:	Attendees must have in his/her possession appropriate government and personal identification